

President's report 2006/7

Only 9 months have passed since the last AGM, so this report is correspondingly brief.

The 2006 AGM was held in Auckland on 16 and 17 February 2007. Valuable verbal reports were received updating members on local events and activities. 10 members attended. Highlights were visits to the newly refurbished Auckland Museum guided by Gordon Maitland and an introduction to the exhibition of British art at the Auckland Art Gallery by Rod MacLeod. The real highlight was as ever seeing old friends again and discussing in an informal way issues of common concern.

Two Christchurch ARLIS events are described in Devon's report, a visit to Canterbury Museum and to the Ngaio Marsh house

No grants or awards were awarded in 2007

Only one issue of ARLIS/ANZ Journal has been published since the last AGM in which Catherine Hammond launched the journal Reading Room.
